Bear Attacked Men.

A large female bear attacked two nen four miles south of Rutland Sun-lay. Frank Sullivan and John Conlin of Rutland started for Shrewsbury with a team of horses early Sunday morning and when four miles outside of the city on the Cold river road, a large bear and two cubs sprang out of the woods by the road-side and attacked the horses. he men attacked the savage animal with the whip and the bear then turned its attention to the occupants of the wagon. While one drove, the other fought off the bear with the whip and this way they managed to get by
